

Privacy Policy for Children Under The Age of 13

Last modified: March 25, 2020

CHILDREN UNDER THE AGE OF 13

The Children's Online Privacy Protection Act of 1998 and its rules (collectively, "COPPA") require parents and legal guardians (as used in this policy, "parent") to be informed about practices for collecting, using, and disclosing personal information from children under the age of 13 ("children"). It also requires verifiable consent to be obtained from a child's parent for certain collection, use, and disclosure of the child's personal information.

Although COPPA may not cover the non-profit organization, Inner-City Movement ("Organization," "we," or "us") as a nonprofit entity otherwise exempt from coverage under Section 5 of the FTC Act (15 U.S.C. 45), this policy notifies parents of:

- The types of information we may collect from children.
- How we use the information we collect.
- Our practices for disclosing that information.
- Our practices for notifying and obtaining parents' consent when we collect personal information from children, including how a parent may revoke consent.
- All operators that collect or maintain information from children through this website <https://actors.bible/> (our "Website") and mobile applications (our "Mobile Apps").

This policy only applies to children under the age of 13 and supplements our general privacy policy ([\[https://actors.bible/reg/privacy\]](https://actors.bible/reg/privacy)). Only our general privacy policy applies to teens and adults.

Terms that are defined in the general privacy policy have the same meanings as used in this Privacy Policy for Children Under the Age of 13. Pertaining only to applicable persons, this policy shall supersede the general privacy policy where conflicts in language might arise.

Information We Collect from Children

Children may access many parts of the Website and Mobile Apps and content and use many of the features without providing us with personal information. However, some content and features are available only to registered users or require us to collect certain information, including personal information, from them. In addition, we use certain technologies, such as cookies, to automatically collect information from our users (including children) when they visit or use the Website and Mobile Apps.

We only collect as much information about a child as is reasonably necessary for the child to participate in an activity, and we do not condition his or her participation on the disclosure of more personal information than is reasonably necessary.

Information We Collect Directly. A child must provide us with the following information to register with this website: the child's first name, initial of the child's last name, birth date, email address of the child, and a parent's email address. We may also require the child to create a username and password. Any additional information provided outside the scope described in these terms during the registration process is removed or redacted upon the processing of the child's registration.

A random display name is automatically generated for the child. The display name cannot be changed by the child and is used for display to others after verifiable parental consent has been obtained. Prior to the issuance of parental consent, the child's display name is never display nor is their real-time and on-going presence in activities through this service made known to other users that may be participating in the same activity.

To obtain verifiable consent, the child's parent is emailed and asked to create an account and provide consent for the child's account with the Website and Mobile Apps. The parent's account is then attached to the child's account, until such time this policy addendum no longer applies to the child. A child's attempt to login to his/her account is restricted to a page to provide parental contact information until the parental consent has been given.

We may request additional information from your child, but this information is optional. We specify whether information is required or optional when we request it.

Automatic Information Collection [and Tracking]. We use technology to automatically collect information from our users, including children, when they access and navigate through the Website and Mobile Apps and use certain of its features. The information we collect through these technologies may include:

We [also] may combine non-personal information we collect through these technologies with personal information about you or your child that we collect online.

For information about our automatic information collection practices, including how you can opt out of certain information collection, see the "Automatic Information Collection [and Tracking]" and "Choices About How We Use and Disclose Your Information" sections of our general Privacy Policy [<https://actors.bible/reg/privacy>].

How We Use Your Child's Information

We use the personal information we collect from your child to:

- register him or her with the Site;
- communicate with him or her about activities or features of the Website and Mobile App that may be of interest;
- track his or her participation in activities;

We use the information we collect automatically through technology (see Automatic Information Collection [and Tracking]) and other non-personal information we collect to improve our Website and Mobile Apps and to deliver a better and more personalized experience by enabling us to:

- Estimate our audience size and usage patterns.
- Store information about the child's preferences, allowing us to customize the content according to individual interests.
- Speed up your searches.

Our Practices for Disclosing Children's Information

We do not share, sell, rent, or transfer children's personal information other than as described in this section.

We may disclose aggregated information about many of our users, and information that does not identify any individual or device. In addition, we may disclose children's personal information:

- To third parties we use to support the internal operations of our Website and Mobile Apps and who are bound by contractual or other obligations to use the information only for such purpose and to keep the information confidential.

- If we are required to do so by law or legal process, such as to comply with any court order or subpoena or to respond to any government or regulatory request.
- If we believe disclosure is necessary or appropriate to protect the rights, property, or safety of Inner-City Movement, our customers or others, including to:
 - protect the safety of a child;
 - protect the safety and security of the Website and Mobile Apps; or
 - enable us to take precautions against liability.
- To law enforcement agencies or for an investigation related to public safety.

Accessing and Correcting Your Child's Personal Information

At any time, you may review the child's personal information maintained by us, require us to correct or delete the personal information, and/or refuse to permit us from further collecting or using the child's information.

You may review, change, revoke parental consent, or delete your child's personal information at any time by:

- Logging into the parent account associated with the parental consent process for the child and visiting the Family Account Management Page at [<https://actors.bible/family>].
- Sending us an email at support@actorsbible.com . To protect your privacy and security, we may require you to take certain steps or provide additional information to verify your identity before we provide any information or make corrections.

Operators That Collect or Maintain Information from Children

The Website and Mobile Apps do not use operators that collect or maintain personal information from children through the Website and Mobile Apps.
